

Honorable Peter W. Rodino, Jr., Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is in response to your request for our views on [REDACTED]

Service Retirement system.

CRC, 8/19/2003

STATINTL

The enactment of [] would result in an annuity from the Civil Service Retirement Fund which is administered by the Civil Service Commission. However, to the extent that the views of this Agency have a bearing on the outcome, we would have no objection to the favorable consideration of the bill.

The Office of Management and Budget has advised that from the standpoint of the Administration's program there is no objection to the submission of this report.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby

Attached for Mr. Colby's signature is a proposed report to Chairman Rodino (House Judiciary Committee) on a private relief bill to permit a former Agency employee to submit a late claim for Civil Service disability retirement.

Upon termination as a surplus case in 1962, the beneficiary did not submit a claim for disability because he (1) did not believe he was disabled and (2) was anxious to get another government job which would send him overseas.

The bill was also introduced last Congress but no action was taken. It is assumed that the Civil Service Commission will continue to oppose the bill on the basis of bad precedent. Our position recognizes the CSC's general interests and recommends favorable consideration to the extent our views have a bearing on the outcome.

If you approve the proposed report, it will be submitted to OMB for clearance before transmittal to Congress. OMB is anxious to see our report before clearing CSC's report on the bill.
